

The parameter τ is responsible for the over fitting of our model, with small τ 's the model appears to over fit the data. When τ grows, the decision boundary becomes smoother, eventually converging to the unweighted linear regression solution.